Dear Marc,

Recently, I read an article in the newspaper about your inspiring finish in the Los Angeles Marathon. I would like to commend you on your extraordinary accomplishment.

In order to persevere and endure such a strenuous challenge, your determination must be exceptional. Exemplifying all that is right with the American spirit, you are a stellar example of fortitude, courage, and tenacity. As you have proven, by doing what is necessary, then going on to what is possible, one is soon capable of accomplishing the impossible.

Marc, please accept my best wishes for continued success with your rehabilitation and in all your future endeavors.

Sincerely,
